Re: *In re The Roman Catholic Diocese of Rockville Centre, New York, Case No. 20-12345

Dear Chief Judge Glenn:

We write to update the Court that today the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") sent the attached notice to the parties to the Standstill Agreement, as that term is defined in the Stipulation and Order Approving Standstill Agreement, Doc. No. 1049.

The Committee remains willing to make substantial progress toward resolving this case.

Very truly yours,

James I. Stang

This email is the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' (the "Committee") notice of termination of the Standstill Period, as that term is defined in the Stipulation and Order Approving Standstill Agreement, Doc. No. 1049.

The Committee remains prepared to discuss a consensual resolution of this matter and would be willing to reinstate the Standstill Period if significant progress toward a consensual plan. At this stage allowing parties to file plans will assist all parties in understanding possible exits to this bankruptcy and next steps for the case.
